FORMER CATALYST CUSTOMERS ELIGIBLE TO APPLY FOR CLAIMS

ATLANTA, March 20, 2009 – Former customers of the natural gas marketer Catalyst Natural Gas have until May 20, 2009 to file a claim with the Catalyst Trustee if you are owed a claim for any unused balance or credit. This relates to any: a) prepaid amounts or deposits; b) budget billing; c) overpayments resulting from billing errors; or d) automatic payments that continued to be paid to Catalyst rather than MxEnergy after MxEnergy acquired the customer accounts of the Debtors. This does not include prepaid amounts which have already been paid back to customers. Catalyst sold its customer accounts to MxEnergy on October 10, 2008.

If you are owed any amount by Catalyst and feel that you have a Consumer Refund Claim, you are required to fill out a Claim Form (shown below) and return the completed Claim to the Trustee of Catalyst at the address indicated below so that the Claim is received on or before May 20, 2009. You are required to attach to the Claim any documents, such as receipts, bills, canceled checks or bank statements, in support of the amount of the Consumer Refund Claim that you assert.
