

The
Georgia Public Service Commission is accepting applications for

Damage Prevention Investigator

Annual Salary: Commensurate with Experience

Recruitment Period: Until Filled

Number of Openings: 2

Job Description:

Under general supervision, the successful candidate will be responsible for enforcing the Georgia state damage prevention law, GUFPA and Georgia Public Service Commission Rules. Activities which include but are not limited to third party damage investigations, communications with excavators and facility owners to determine route cause, site visits, presentations and testifying at hearings.

Duties and Responsibilities/Technical Skills:

Complete damage investigations quickly and accurately, document findings, and upload to database.

Respond to in-bound calls and be available as a resource for GA Dig Law and Commission Rule inquiries.

Perform audits on company damage prevention programs, damage history, and assist in development of such programs.

Educate excavators/facility owners about personal and public safety hazards, and the state damage prevention law. Monitor prevention methods to reduce third party damages to facilities.

Testify at hearings.

Represent the Commission in industry forums focused on damage prevention including GA 811 activities.

Manage the compliance with Common Ground Alliance best practices, compliance with the state damage prevention law, Commission Rules and compliance with contract requirements.

Other Skills:

The candidate should demonstrate: leadership and team building skills, the ability to establish and maintain collaborative working relationships with state government, municipals, Industry officials and the excavation community.

Must be able to apply critical thinking and analytical skills as well as listening in environments where emotions are elevated due to a damage. This Individual should be able to exercise sound judgment during critical operating situations. Ability to effectively communicate in writing. Knowledge of Microsoft Office products a must.

Preferred Training, Experience, Skills and Abilities:

Completion of a Bachelor's degree in construction or investigations related fields; OR professional work experience in construction, damage prevention, utility damage investigations.

Submit an application package with the following:

1. Cover Letter
2. Resume
3. Public Service Commission Application
4. State of Georgia Application
5. School Transcripts

Electronic application forms in WORD format are available for download at www.psc.state.ga.us. Then click on the "Careers" tab

Submit electronic information to hrgpsc@psc.state.ga.us or mail documents to:

Georgia Public Service Commission
Human Resources
244 Washington Street, SW
Atlanta, GA 30334