PSC ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS COMPLETE SIX COUNTY ROAD CHECK

ATLANTA – Enforcement Officers from the Public Service Commission recently completed a four-day road check in McIntosh, Liberty, Camden, Glynn, Long and Wayne Counties. The officers made a total of 699 inspections resulting in a total of 36 arrests as well as removing 190 vehicles and 110 drivers from service for unsafe conditions. The arrests included three citations for possession of controlled substances. Officers also found 20 Commercial Drivers License violations, made 39 High Crash Zone inspections in McIntosh County and assisted Liberty County Sheriffs' units in capturing a fleeing suspect.

The road check began on March 12 and ended on March 15.

Area I Supervisor Captain Don Lively says, "I feel that all of the officers should be commended for a job well done."
